THE GRAND CANYON MUSIC FESTIVAL

"... a treat for eyes and ears." - The New York Times

PRESENTS

The 37th Season

"A Season Like No Other"

August 28 - September 19, 2020

What: Grand Canyon Music Festival's 37th Season, with live streamed weekend concerts, interviews, videos, reading material, and recipes for food and drink to enjoy at home during the festival.

Who: The Catalyst Quartet, Bonfiglio Group, Manhattan Chamber Players, and many more friends, old and new.

When: August 28 - September 12, 2020

Where: Weekend concerts live streamed on our YouTube and Facebook pages.

How to Join: Links to GCMF concerts and events will be available on our website, and emails with links will be sent to our email contacts. Anyone wishing to be added can send their email address to info@grandcanyonmusicfest.org.

The Grand Canyon Music Festival is proud to join our friends and colleagues in the arts and sciences communities of Coconino County by adding our name to the Flagstaff Arts Council's Covid Pledge. We have designed a season that continues our commitment to the Grand Canyon communities, while keeping our distance, and keeping everyone safe.

While we will miss being in the Shrine of the Ages at the Grand Canyon, this season, like no other, gives us an opportunity to share our artists with you more intimately, and bring the music and Grand Canyon directly into homes.
